Personal Injury

Personal Injury fraud

Morgan has a particular expertise in relation to cases where fraud is alleged and robust cross examination is required. As part of Lamb Chamber's fraud team Morgan provides lectures on tactics in fraud cases and best procedural practice in such matters. He is regularly instructed in cases where there are concerns as to a Claimant's honesty and undertakes drafting, advisory and advocacy work in this area across England and Wales.

Personal Injury

Morgan's practice covers both Claimant and Defendant work, ranging from RTAs to Occupier's Liability, industrial disease and accidents in the work place on the fast and multi track level. He also has considerable experience in relation to detailed assessments of costs and regularly appears in the Supreme Court Costs Office.
