

Mark Rowlands

Mark became our Chief Executive in September 2017. In his role he is responsible for the overall management of Lamb Chambers, and sits on the management board and works closely with the head of chambers, members and staff to drive the vision of the set. Mark is responsible in creating and delivering business development and marketing strategies to ensure Chambers is best placed to meet and exceed the challenges and opportunities of an evolving legal service market. He takes responsibility for compliance, human resources and the development of barristers and staff at Lamb Chambers. Mark is well versed in business planning and strategic planning/execution and looks to develop and maintain lasting business relationships.

Mark has over 20 years' experience working (Australia, Middle East, US and Europe) in legal services including working for Allens Linklaters, PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal, Clayton Utz, Reed Smith, Bird & Bird, King & Spalding and Morgan Lewis.

Mark enjoys all sports but particularly rugby (Wallabies/Waratahs/Sydney University), cricket and horse racing. He also loves modern art, collecting/tasting wine, barbecuing and travelling.

Publications/Press

- 2015 – Mark Rowlands runs Le Marathon du Medoc: Headway, East Sussex
- 2017 – A Chief Asset: New Law Journal
- 2017 – Taking Charge of Chambers: The Times
- 2021 – Lessons Learned From Lockdown: Strong Relationships are Key: New Law Journal

Memberships/Clubs

- Armadillos Cricket Club: Founding Member
- Commonwealth Lawyers Association
- Haywards Heath Rugby Football Club
- Sydney University Rugby Football Club
- The Anglo Australasian Lawyers Society
- The Britain-Australia Society
- The Doyle Club
- The Royal Over-Seas League
- The Turf Club

